Come hear about the status of a city-wide Complete Streets policy, and the role you can play to make it happen.

Tentative Agenda:

Part 1: Speakers

Sara Mayo, Social Planning and Research Council of Hamilton

- Why is a complete streets policy important?
- What are differences between a complete streets policy and complete streets guidelines?
- How can we make sure complete streets policies don't sit on a shelf?

Steve Malloy, City of Hamilton Public Works department

- Upcoming City of Hamilton policies to support Complete Streets

Justin Jones, Share the Road Cycling Coalition

- How to be an effective Complete Streets advocate
- Best responses to common arguments against Complete Streets

Part 2: Your turn (feedback in small groups or on poster boards)

- Comments on draft Complete Streets policy
- Feedback on complete streets policy roadmap (endorsement campaign, advocacy events)
- Opportunity to sign up for short-term or longer-term volunteer roles to help make Complete Streets a reality in Hamilton
