Balancing the phenomenon of gentrification

Join us for National Housing Day 2015 at a FREE event about the importance of developing affordable housing to ensure that no one is left behind as Hamilton becomes increasingly desirable as a place to live, work and raise a family.

Keynote speakers will include Mayor Fred Eisenberger (City of Hamilton) and Dr. Richard Harris (McMaster University, School of Geography and Earth Sciences). There will be panel discussions to examine current issues and to showcase emerging and innovative best practices.
